The Organising Committee reserves the right to modify the competition programme whenever necessary due to weather conditions, snow conditions, safety considerations or any other circumstances affecting the proper conduct of the event. Any modifications shall be communicated through the official Team Captains' Meetings and official notice boards.

ARTICLE 2: CATEGORIES AND EVENTS

For the 2027 edition, the male and female categories are as follows:

- U14: athletes born in 2013 or 2014
- U16: athletes born in 2011 or 2012

All competitions shall be conducted in accordance with the applicable FIS International Competition Rules (ICR). All competition equipment shall comply with the applicable FIS equipment specifications and regulations.

ARTICLE 3: PARTICIPATION

All official teams entered by their respective National Ski Associations (NSAs) are eligible to participate in the 35th Trofeu Borrufa. All participants must be duly registered with their respective National Ski Association, which shall be responsible for authorising their participation in the competition.

Each National Ski Association shall ensure that all members of its delegation comply with the FIS International Competition Rules (ICR), the applicable FIS Regulations and these Competition Regulations.

As the host nation, Andorra reserves the right to authorise the participation of additional Team B entries from other National Ski Associations.

In accordance with the applicable FIS regulations, each participating team, whether Team A or Team B, may include a maximum of 10 athletes, composed as follows:

- U14: up to 4 athletes
- U16: up to 6 athletes, with a maximum of 4 athletes of the same gender

3.1 REGISTRATION

Each National Ski Association must duly complete and submit the following documents:

- FIS Entry Form – Trofeu Borrufa 2027
- Transfer Details 2027

The completed documents must be sent by email to borrufa@ordinoarcalis.com

Entries will only be accepted when submitted by the corresponding National Ski Association.

To facilitate the organisation of accommodation, transfers and other event arrangements, National Ski Associations are kindly requested to submit the required documentation by 22 December 2026.

For entries received after 4 January 2027 at 17:00 (CET), the Organising Committee cannot guarantee accommodation or transfer availability, nor access to the special Borrufa rates.

A separate Entry Form shall be submitted for female and male athletes, including both U14 and U16 categories.

The Entry Form must be completed accurately, including each athlete's surname, first name and year of birth.

For each discipline, Super-G (SG), Giant Slalom (GS) and Slalom (SL), athletes must be listed in the team's preferred ranking order for the draw.

The preferred ranking order must be indicated using numbers (1, 2, 3, etc.), and not with an "X", for each discipline in which the athlete is entered. The ranking order may therefore differ from one discipline to another.

Start numbers (bibs) and start lists shall be distributed following the Team Captains' Meeting, except for the second U16 race, for which they shall be distributed following the public draw. If the public draw cannot take place due to weather conditions, safety reasons or any other circumstances beyond the Organising Committee's control, the draw shall instead be held during the Team Captains' Meeting, following the same procedure as for the previous races.

The Organising Committee of the Trofeu Borrufa may authorise the participation of athletes from the Andorra Ski Federation (FAE) who are not included in the official Team A or Team B entries.

These athletes will be drawn after the final group of Team B athletes from the participating National Ski Associations. Any points obtained by these athletes shall not count towards the Andorran Team Classification.

3.2 TRANSPORT

The Trofeu Borrufa offers a complimentary shuttle service between Barcelona Airport and the Principality of Andorra on 17 January 2027, and from the Principality of Andorra to Barcelona Airport on 22 January 2027.

A daily shuttle service will also be provided, according to the official event schedule, to transport participants between their accommodation and the competition venues.

Upon arrival in Ordino, all teams shall report to the Race Office to complete registration, submit the required documentation, including passports or other valid identification where applicable, and collect their event information and accreditation.

3.3 ACCOMMODATION

The Trofeu Borrufa Organising Committee shall provide complimentary accommodation and hospitality for Team A only, as follows:

- 1 to 4 athletes, all entered in the same age category (either U14 or U16) + 1 coach.
- 1 to 4 athletes, with athletes entered in both U14 and U16 categories + 2 coaches.
- 5 to 8 athletes + 2 coaches.

The complimentary hospitality package for Team A includes:

- Accommodation from the afternoon of Sunday, 17 January 2027, until the morning of Friday, 22 January 2027.
- Lunch at the ski resort from 18 to 21 January 2027.
- A complimentary ski pass valid from 18 to 21 January 2027.

For Team B, complimentary ski passes valid from 18 to 21 January 2027 shall be provided to all registered athletes and coaches. No other complimentary accommodation or hospitality shall be provided for Team B.

All accommodation, meals and other costs not covered by the Organising Committee, including additional nights and any Team A delegation members exceeding the complimentary quota specified above, shall be borne by the respective National Ski Association and paid at the Race Office during registration.

The Organising Committee will make every reasonable effort to accommodate Team A and Team B from the same National Ski Association at the same accommodation establishment.

ARTICLE 4: CLASSIFICATIONS

Each event and each age category shall have separate Male and Female Individual Classifications.

A Team Classification shall also be established by adding the points awarded to each athlete in the individual classifications of all events included in the competition programme, for both the male and female categories, according to the following points system:

1st = 25 pts	2nd = 20 pts	3rd = 15 pts	4th = 12 pts	5th = 11 pts
6th = 10 pts	7th = 9 pts	8th = 8 pts	9th = 7 pts	10th = 6 pts
11th = 5 pts	12th = 4 pts	13th = 3 pts	14th = 2 pts	15th = 1 pt

In the event of a tie in the Team Classification, the higher-ranked team shall be the one whose athletes have achieved the greater number of individual victories or the better overall placings.

4.1 PROTESTS

Protests shall be submitted in writing to the Jury by an authorised representative of the participating National Ski Association, such as the Team Captain, in accordance with the applicable FIS International Competition Rules (ICR).

The following protests may be submitted within the applicable deadlines:

- Against the admittance of a competitor: before the draw.
- Against the competition course or its condition: no later than 60 minutes before the start of the race.
- Against a competitor, their equipment or an official during the competition: within 15 minutes after the last competitor has passed the finish.
- Against a disqualification: within 15 minutes after the official posting or announcement of the disqualification.
- Against timekeeping: within 15 minutes after the posting of the unofficial result list.
- Against instructions of the Jury: immediately and no later than the deadline applicable to protests against disqualification.

The Jury shall examine and decide all protests in accordance with the applicable FIS International Competition Rules.

Decisions of the Jury may be appealed only in accordance with the appeal procedures established by the FIS ICR.

4.2 SANCTIONS

Any athlete, team official, coach, support staff member or other accredited person who fails to comply with these Competition Regulations, the applicable FIS International Competition Rules (ICR), or the instructions and decisions of the Jury may be subject to disciplinary measures.

Offences may include, but are not limited to:

- Failure to comply with the instructions or decisions of the Jury or race officials.
- Unsportsmanlike conduct or behaviour contrary to the principles of fair play.
- Offensive, abusive or inappropriate behaviour towards athletes, team officials, volunteers, spectators or members of the Organising Committee.
- Conduct that compromises the safety of participants or the proper organisation of the competition.
- Failure to comply with the applicable FIS International Competition Rules or these Competition Regulations.
- Damage to the competition venue, accommodation, transport, equipment or any property provided by the Organising Committee.

Depending on the nature and severity of the offence, the Jury may impose one or more of the following disciplinary measures in accordance with the applicable FIS Regulations:

- Verbal or written warning.
- Withdrawal of accreditation.
- Refusal of entry or participation.
- Disqualification.
- Suspension from the competition.
- Referral of the matter to the competent FIS bodies for further disciplinary proceedings, where applicable.

Any disciplinary measure shall be imposed in accordance with the applicable FIS International Competition Rules (ICR) and the FIS Sanctions and Procedural Guidelines.

Any damage caused intentionally or through negligence to the competition venue, accommodation facilities, transport, equipment or any other property provided for the event shall be the financial responsibility of the individual concerned or, where applicable, the participating National Ski Association.

ARTICLE 5: PRIZES

Trophies shall be awarded to the top five athletes in each Male and Female Individual Classification.

The 35th Trofeu Borrufa Trophy shall be awarded to the team ranked first in the final Team Classification, established by combining the points obtained in all events included in the competition programme.

The Organising Committee reserves the right to present additional awards or recognitions, provided that these do not affect the official competition classifications.

ARTICLE 6: MEDIA AND IMAGE RIGHTS

During the Trofeu Borrufa, photographs, video recordings and other audiovisual content may be produced for purposes related to the promotion, communication and coverage of the event. Such content may include competition footage, live streaming, interviews and other event-related material and may be published through the Trofeu Borrufa's official website, social media channels, digital platforms and other communication media.

National Ski Associations are responsible for informing athletes and, where applicable, their parents or legal guardians of these activities and for ensuring that any authorisations required under applicable law have been obtained.

Any National Ski Association that does not authorise the recording or publication of images of one or more members of its delegation must notify the Organising Committee in writing by email before the start of the event, clearly identifying the person or persons concerned.

In the absence of such notification, the Organising Committee will understand that the National Ski Association has no objection to the recording and use of images for the purposes described above, subject at all times to applicable law.

ARTICLE 7: RESPONSIBILITIES

The Organising Committee shall ensure that third-party liability insurance is in place for the organisation of the 35th Trofeu Borrufa, in accordance with the applicable FIS International Competition Rules (ICR). For the purposes of this event, such insurance shall be provided by Ordino Arcalís Ski Resort.

Each participating National Ski Association shall be responsible for ensuring that all athletes, coaches, team officials and support staff included in its delegation are covered by adequate accident and third-party liability insurance, including rescue and medical expenses, in accordance with the applicable FIS Regulations.

Upon request, participating National Ski Associations shall be able to provide proof of the required insurance coverage.

The Organising Committee shall not be liable for accidents, injuries, loss of personal belongings or damage to equipment occurring during the event, except where liability is established under the applicable legislation.

All participants shall comply with these Competition Regulations, the applicable FIS International Competition Rules (ICR), and the instructions issued by the Jury and the Organising Committee throughout the event.

ARTICLE 8: UNFORESEEN MATTERS

Any matter not expressly provided for in these Competition Regulations shall be governed by the applicable FIS International Competition Rules (ICR) and any other relevant FIS rules and regulations.

Only accredited persons are permitted to access the competition areas. During the competition, access to the race courses shall be restricted to authorised personnel, athletes and team officials carrying the appropriate accreditation.

Parents, relatives and other spectators are not permitted to enter the competition areas or race courses at any time and shall comply with all instructions issued by the Organising Committee and event officials.

Athletes shall inspect the course in accordance with the applicable FIS ICR and shall not train on the competition course unless expressly authorised.

All participants shall carry valid identification and their event accreditation or ski pass at all times when participating in official event activities.

Any matter requiring interpretation of these Competition Regulations shall be decided by the Jury in accordance with the applicable FIS Regulations.

ARTICLE 9: SPECIFICATIONS FOR ALPINE COMPETITION EQUIPMENT

3.5.3.4 Implementation of cut resistant undergarment

The use of cut-resistant undergarment pants is mandatory for all FIS Alpine Skiing events. The mandatory implementation requires a minimum protection level of 3 stars according to the FIS-DITF test standard everywhere between the iliac crest and the onset of the ski boot. The use of cut resistant shirts or full body suits is strongly recommended.
